As part of the University Health Services at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, the mission of the Wisconsin Clearinghouse is to help schools, families, and communities to lead healthy and productive lives. The Wisconsin Clearinghouse has been disseminating information and providing alcohol and drug abuse prevention products and services nationally and state-wide for more than 20 years.

The Wisconsin Clearinghouse publishes a sales catalog that lists more than 300 alcohol and drug abuse awareness and prevention materials (i.e., videotapes, software, curricula, activity books, pamphlets, and posters). If you'd like to receive a free catalog by mail, call the Wisconsin Clearinghouse at 800/322-1468, or e-mail your request to: wchpr@www.uhs.wisc.edu

The Prevention Resource Center is a statewide program of the Wisconsin Clearinghouse that provides an array of services to non-profit, private and public sector organizations and educators throughout Wisconsin. Services include disseminating alcohol and drug abuse awareness and prevention-related materials, lending curricula, videos and books, and providing technical assistance in such areas as grant writing and program evaluation. Staff also present ideas and information at conferences and workshops. The Wisconsin Clearinghouse also mails the "Prevention Package" to more than 500 sites, providing information on new publications, successful programs, and a calendar of upcoming conferences and training events. The "Prevention Outlook" newsletter is also published, with up-to-date articles on important issues in the prevention field. [Revised 1/97]

Individual assessment, counseling, treatment and/or support services are available from a variety of agencies and organizations throughout Stevens Point
