

From: Student Academic Advising Center
Sent: Monday, November 02, 2009 6:46 PM
To: Undeclared Advisees
Subject: Majors Fair, Nov. 4 4:00-6:00pm, Laird Room

Undecided? Unsure of your major? You're in luck!

Come to the... Majors Fair!

sponsored by the Student Government Association

What? The Majors Fair is a two hour event in which academic departments, majors and advising staff come together in one room to help you decide on and understand your major.

Where? In the DUC Laird Room, right up the stairs from the University Bookstore

When? November 4th, from 4pm–6pm

Who? This fair is for anyone with questions or concerns about their future—from freshman to seniors! See the list of participating dept. below.

- Art
- Business & Economics
- Chemistry
- Communication
- Education
- English
- Foreign Language
- Health Promotion
- Health Sciences
- History
- Mathematical Sciences
- Natural Resources
- Paper Science
- Philosophy
- Political Science
- Psychology
- ROTC
- Sociology
- Women's Studies

The Student Academic Advising Center, International Programs, and Career Services will also be there!

Hope to see you there!