

AMSLC 2009 RELEASE AND ASSUMPTION POLICY

As a participant in the American Multicultural Student Leadership Conference (AMSLC), I understand that I will attend a myriad of conference activities on October 16-18, 2009.

I also understand that there may be risks or consequences in participating in these activities. By consenting to this Release and Assumption Policy, I agree to hold harmless and indemnify the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System, their officers, agents, and employees from any and all liability, loss, damages, costs, or expenses of any kind; or damages to persons or property arising out or in communication with or during the course of this agreement, where such liability is founded upon and grows out of my acts or missions while participating in AMSLC.
