

Course: EDUC 370/570 - TURTLE PROJECT- Essential Skills for Learning - INTERNET

Section: See Below

Credits: 1 credit each Topic (see below)

Description: The turtle is a symbol of Mother Earth, peace, harmony, and everlasting life. The thirteen shields on the turtle's back are symbols representing what I believe are essential skills for learning.

The following topics are the skills leading to being an independent learner. This course provides each topic as an option for teachers and parents to study, explore, and integrate into their curriculum and/or everyday life.

Topics are:

Section 7801 Self Advocacy
Section 7802 Failure as a Tool
Section 7803 Independence
Section 7804 Social Issues
Section 7805 Counseling
Section 7806 Strengths
Section 7807 Remediation
Section 7808 Problem-Solving Skills
Section 7809 How Do I Learn?
Section 7810 Generalization
Section 7811 Communication Skills
Section 7812 Assistive Technology
Section 7813 Relationship & Life Skills

Please go to <http://www.uwsp.edu/Education/dupham/Turtleprj/index.htm> for more information about each topic.

Instructor: Dayle Upham, PhD

Location: INTERNET

Dates and Times: Start after: September 7, 2004 TBA
End by: December 10, 2004 TBA

Limit: 20

Estimated Tuition: Each credit - WI Undergraduate $197.11
Each credit - WI Graduate $321.78

All fees reflect off-campus rate plus $25 INTERNET fee