Teaching Colloquium: Service-Learning Project Development

Join us April 18th!

The Center for Academic Excellence and Student Engagement is pleased to host a follow up event to last year's Service-Learning Colloquium. This event will build upon participants' existing service-learning knowledge and guide faculty and community partners through the project development process in facilitated sessions. Participants will have the opportunity to meet a variety of faculty members and community partners that are interested in working with service-learning students and begin working together to meet mutual goals through new and innovative service-learning projects.
