Applications are due March 7, 2005.

Applicants are notified about award status on April 11, 2005.

(Attach this cover sheet to your application)

Name: _____ Project Title: _____

Check one:

Summer '05 stipend

OR

Fall '05 course release award

Check the one(s) that best describes the intent of your proposal, and enclose this checklist with your form.

- Revising teaching delivery, methods or strategies
 Creating or revising learning or course assessments
 Examining generational differences
 Incorporating newer views of learning and/or learning styles
 Other (explain) _____

The proposal format is meant to be generally inclusive. Note that it would be rare for one proposal to meet all of the review criteria. Completed proposals should be between 200-300 words. Please be sensitive to the fact that reviewers may be outside of your discipline.

Expectations

At the completion of the project, awardees will be expected to write a reflective article to be included in a composite FACETS publication, documenting actions, insights, findings, and/or any assessment data resulting from the project. Further, each award winner may be asked to present findings to a UWSP January Teaching Summit and/or in a national audience (publication or at a conference).

Proposal Elements to Address

- Focus/objectives of research or project
- Methodology or processes for achieving stated objectives
- Anticipated or possible outcomes
- Projected timeline
